DEFENDANT: Nathan Scott Woods
CASE NUMBER: CR-18-00292-001-SLP

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: Nathan Scott Woods

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall submit to a sex offender mental health assessment and a program of sex offender mental health treatment, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This assessment and treatment may include a polygraph to assist in planning and case monitoring. The defendant may be required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (copayment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on the defendant's ability to pay. Any refusal to submit to such assessment or tests as scheduled is a violation of the conditions of supervision.

The defendant shall waive all rights to confidentiality regarding sex offender mental health treatment in order to allow release of information to the supervising probation officer and to authorize open communication between the probation officer and the treatment provider.

The defendant shall not be at any residence where children under the age of 18 are residing without the prior written permission of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not be associated with children under the age of 18 except in the presence of a responsible adult who is aware of the defendant's background and current offense, and who has been approved by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not view, purchase, possess, or distribute any form of pornography depicting sexually explicit conduct as defined in 18 U.S.C. 2256(2), unless approved for treatment purposes, or frequent any place where such material is the primary product for sale or entertainment is available.

The defendant shall register pursuant to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, or any applicable state registration law. The defendant shall submit his/her person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

The defendant shall not use a computer to access any on-line computer service at any location (including employment) for the purpose of viewing, obtaining, or transmitting child pornography or other sexually explicit material. The defendant shall not access Internet chat rooms for the purpose of obtaining child pornography or enticing children under the age of 18 to engage in sexually explicit activity.

The defendant shall consent to third party disclosure to any employer or potential employer concerning computer-related restrictions and monitoring requirements.

The defendant shall consent to the U. S. Probation Officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations, without individual showing of reasonable suspicion, on any computer equipment used by the defendant. The examination may include assistance of other law enforcement agencies. This may include retrieval and copying of all data from the computer and any internal or external peripherals to ensure compliance with his/her conditions and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection, and allow at the direction of the probation officer, installation on the defendant's computer, at the defendant's expense per co-payment policy, any hardware or software systems to monitor the defendant's computer use. The defendant shall comply with a Computer Monitoring and Acceptable Use Contract, which includes a requirement that the defendant use a computer compatible with available monitoring systems. The defendant shall have no expectation of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer. The defendant shall warn any other significant third parties that the computer(s) may be subject to monitoring. Any attempt to circumvent monitoring and examination may be grounds for revocation.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer with access to any on-line computer service at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet Service provider, bulletin board system or any other public or private network or e-mail system. This condition is not a prohibition on the defendant's use of the Internet, but a restriction to use of the Internet only on device(s) that (1) are compatible with the U.S. Probation Office's monitoring technology and (2) are approved by the probation officer prior to any use, so that use of the device(s) can be monitored.

The defendant must submit to a search of his person, property, electronic devices or any automobile under his control to be conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable time, for the purpose of determining possession, or evidence of possession of controlled substances, drug paraphernalia, or drug use at the direction of the probation officer upon reasonable suspicion. Further, the defendant must inform any residents that the premises may be subject to a search.

The defendant shall participate in a program of substance abuse aftercare at the direction of the probation officer to include urine, breath, or sweat patch testing; and outpatient treatment. The defendant shall totally abstain from the use of alcohol and other intoxicants both during and after completion of any treatment program. The defendant shall not frequent bars, clubs, or other establishments where alcohol is the main business. The court may order that the defendant contribute to the cost of services rendered (copayment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer based on the defendant's ability to pay.

The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health aftercare at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant may be required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (copayment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on the defendant's ability to pay.
